Re: Level 2 Food Protection Certification, Ross County Health District (RCHD)

Dear Food Establishment Operators:

The Ross County Health District will be providing Level 2 Food Protection Certification Training for local food operators, managers, shift managers, cooks, or other interested employees seeking to obtain an Ohio approved Level 2 Food Protection Certification. The class will be held during 2 days (15.0 hours total instruction time), on Monday December 4, 2017 from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday December 11, 2017 from 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM. The Final Exam will be held on the second day between 4:00 and 6:00 pm.

Our ServSafe class is approved by Ohio Department of Health as a Level 2 Food Protection Certification. Those who successfully pass our class will meet requirements of Ohio Uniform Food Safety Code 3717-1-02.4 (A)(2) Level 2 Food Protection Certification. This regulation requires that all Level 3 and Level 4 food operations must have at least one (1) employee certified in Level 2 Food Protection Certification that has supervisory or management responsibility for oversight of food safety in your establishment (effective March 1, 2017). Our Level 2 Food Protection Certification class provides extensive training in food safety and foodborne outbreak prevention with an overall goal to improve food safety in food establishments in Ross County.

If you or any of your employees would like to attend our upcoming class, please complete the enclosed registration form and return the form along with payment to our office by November 6, 2017. The class will cost $135.00 per employee. The cost of the class includes the ServSafe Coursebook (each participant gets to keep their copy of the book) and it includes the exam fee.

Please contact the RCHD at 740-775-1158 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Logan Calhoun, RS, Director
Environmental Health Services
Ross County Health District
